WHO ARE WE?

Loggers and log, equipment, and wood products truckers formed the Associated Logging Contractors in 1966 to develop programs that help our members reduce the costs of operations and craft creative solutions to problems confronting the industry. By working together and with others, ALC has been successful in defining the issues, providing solutions to vexing problems and building coalitions to successfully implement these solutions.

WE ARE IDAHO!

The ALC represents 519 independent logging and hauling contracting companies from across Idaho:
